Despite the pandemic bringing grief, hardship and misery to so many people, there have been tiny areas where it has worked to advantage, and this could be described as one. Compelled, as we were, to hold the South East Poland over to this year giving us the opportunity to include 14th International Railway Fair (Trako Exhibition) taking place in Gdansk between 21st and 24th September.

Our first visit to Gdansk was back in 2017 and as part of a highly successful and enjoyable tour. This time we offer up this as relaxing precursor which will gently prepare you for the South East Poland Combination tour which follows

ITINERARY

Day One – Wednesday 22nd September

Arrival day into our hotel at Gdynia. Yes, it is Gdynia! If you thought that hotel accommodation in Gdansk might be hard to come by with a major exhibition on, you would be so right! Where rooms are available, the cost is sky-high! So, once again we are staying in Gdynia. Not a hardship – the rail journey twice the two is brief. No activity is planned for today which will help those who have difficulty reaching this part of Poland.

Overnight Accommodation throughout – Hotel Mercure Gdynia Centrum

Day Two – Thursday 23rd September

A very relaxed local day that will include Gdynia Grabówek and Gdynia Cisowa Depots. There will be other locations of interest but there is always the possibility to go further afield.

Day Three – Friday 24th September

The Exhibition opens at 10am in the morning and can be easily reached by a short train and tram journey. The location is AmberExpo, Zagłowa 11 Street (ul. Zagłowa 11), 80-560 Gdansk, <http://www.trakofair.com> The Exhibition closes at 4pm but, afterwards, you are free to do your own thing. Transferring to Warszawa, you may opt for an earlier arrival at the capital. Fast trains are every hour.
